RACES 2009

We had a great race event this year. Everything ran smoothly. Hats off to Race Chairperson KIM & Co-Chairperson KENDALL. The race results will be posted on the club website shortly.

Congratulations to this year's Champions:

Drag overall champion -MIKE MAJOR Jr.

Oval overall champion – KEVIN SMITH

“GRAND CHAMPION” MIKE MAJOR JR.

Here are a few race stats: There were 213 drag registrations, 95 oval registrations & 62 Kitty Kat registrations.

There will be much more on the races at the General Membership Meeting. Don't miss it!

The Race Appreciation Party will be held at the V.F.W. on Saturday, April 4.

A NOTE FROM PRESIDENT BRAD G:

“I would like to thank all of the members that came out & helped set up on Saturday, Sunday for the races & Monday for clean-up. There are also a lot of members that need to be thanked, they are the ones that do all of the odd jobs that are not on any sign-up sheets that make this race come together. We had a great race this year!”

We're hoping to have a “Family Race Day” at the V.F.W on Sunday, February 8. Check on the club website. www.suburbansnohawks.com

John U also has AWSC raffle tickets for sale.

TRIPS

Roger reported that the trails were very good condition and the temps were cold. About 14 people rode in the area. The motel is under new ownership and has been recently remodeled. Joe recommended Kitties which is north of the motel for Saturday night dinner. Ron (the most prepared Snowmobiler) came to the rescue again with face mask and handle bar covers for the Suring trip in January.

There are some rooms available for the Carter trip on February 13, 14 & 15. Make your own reservations @1-800-777-1640. Mention “Sno-Hawks”

Brad has 10 rooms left for the week-end outing at Mole Lake Hotel & Casino in Crandon for February 27, 28 & Mar. 1. He reserved 20 rooms. Make your reservations @ 1-877-478-5772. Mention "Suburban Sno-Hawks"

Brad G has nice blue t-shirts with the club logo for $11.10 & long sleeves for $14.25.

Waukesha County Snowmobile Assn. has a scholarship available again this year for high school seniors. See Brad for more information or the WCSA website @ waukeshasnow.org.
